

MANY DARING DEEDS AMID THE SLAUGHTER

The Japanese Reported to be Weakening in Their Fire.

Russia is Rejoicing Over the Turning of Tide in Her Favor

BOTH SIDES REINFORCED, IT IS REPORTED

London, Oct. 19.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph, says that word has been received at St. Petersburg that the Japanese fire at Shakhe river is weakening, owing to an insufficient supply of projectiles.

GENERALS CONFERRING.
Paris, Oct. 19.—A telegram from Mukden reports that Viceroy Alexieff has arrived there to confer with Gen. Kuropatkin.

SAKHAROFF REPORTS.
St. Petersburg, Oct. 19.—Gen. Sakharoff reports as follows under today's date: "The Japanese are concentrating on the center front near Linski. Captain Denburski, while reconnoitering yesterday, captured two Japanese guns, and suffered no loss. Our left has made a slight advance."

REPULSED THE JAPS.
Fidyalun, Six Miles East of Shakhe, Oct. 19.—Fighting still continues along the whole front. The Japanese have made an unsuccessful attempt to recapture Lone Tree Hill. The Russian infantry met several attacks, and repulsed them all.
Heavy rains continue.
Every one is terribly exhausted, but full of fight.

The battlefield of Lone Tree Hill presents the most awful spectacle that can be conceived. Russian and Japanese dead are mingled in heaps in inextricable confusion. The ground is strewn with broken rifles that had been smashed in hand-to-hand fighting. Everything seems to have been utilized as weapons.
The Russian doctors are working heroically on the slopes of the hill, in the attempt to save those of the wounded who still survive, but the Japanese keep up a sniping fire and render the work of relief difficult and dangerous.

UNSUCCESSFUL ASSAULT.
Mukden, Oct. 19.—Lone Tree Hill, won by the Russians after a desperate struggle, was the object of a gallant but unsuccessful attempt at recapture by the Japanese. In spite of the awful slaughter with which they had been driven from the hill, the Japanese returned to the charge during the night of Oct. 17, recognizing that the hill was the key to the position on the southwest front. Nine regiments participated, creeping up through the night and delivering a furious assault at dawn. But the hill had been bought too dearly by the Russians to relinquish it, and the Japanese were driven back with terrible slaughter.

It is reported that Gen. Mischenko's Cossacks, under command of Adj. Gavriloff, were engaged in a hot fight on Oct. 17 towards the southeast. A Cossack horse battery silenced the Japanese guns and drove back several infantry battalions, but were unable to capture the guns which the Japanese succeeded in carrying off.

RUSSIANS ADVANCING.
Mukden, Oct. 19.—It is reported that the Russian army is advancing. Rain is hindering everything. The rivers are bank-full and the fords are impassable. There are no bridges. Supplies of all sorts are delayed.

Cossacks brought in captured guns and Japanese wounded prisoners on Oct. 17. Russian soldiers surrounded the prisoners and gave them bread and water and in other ways tried to relieve their wants.

News has just been received that the Japanese left flank has been driven back with heavy loss.

JAPS ADVANCE IS CHECKED.
St. Petersburg, Oct. 19.—In official circles it is believed that the Japanese have reached the limit of their advance, and their latest actions have assured the safety of Mukden. Under yesterday's date Gen. Kuropatkin telegraphs the czar as follows: "During the night the Japanese attacked our position at Lone Tree Hill, and were repulsed. There are no reports of other engagements up to 10 o'clock this morning. Rain fell last night, which much affected the roads."

RIVER SEPARATES THEM.
Tokio, Oct. 19.—A dispatch received in official quarters this morning states that Field Marshal Oyama's army is still face to face with Gen. Kuropatkin's forces, the Japanese on one side of the Shakhe river and the Russians the other.

WILL CONQUER OR DIE.
Rome, Oct. 19.—A newspaper here says that Gen. Kuropatkin has wired the czar as follows: "We will literally execute your orders and will conquer or die."

BOTH SIDES REINFORCED.
Rome, Oct. 19.—A report has reached here that the Russians have received reinforcements, twenty thousand having arrived from Kirin, which is about midway between Mukden and Harbin. The Japanese are reinforced by a brigade from New Chwang.

CAPTURE 14 GUNS.
Tokio, Oct. 19.—The Russians enveloped an advanced column on Sunday, Oct. 16, and captured fourteen guns. The Russians are now concentrating in front of the left army under Gen. Oku and the center army under Gen. Nodzu, and an other great battle is expected.

These are the first guns to be lost by the Japanese during the war.

RUSSIANS JUBILANT.
St. Petersburg, Oct. 19.—There is jubilation throughout the city over the news that Gen. Kuropatkin has resumed the offensive, and the holiday, which began with little heart, closed brighter. The crowds in the streets and the illuminations in honor of the Czarvitch's name day gave a tinge of brilliancy to an evening otherwise depressing through a constant drizzle of rain. Newsboys up to midnight raced through the thoroughfares with evening extras, shouting "Great Russian Victory," and crowds bought the papers. Groups of men in brilliant uniforms or in evening dress at the hotels and restaurants discussed the change in the fortunes of war.

BATTLE DYING OUT.
London, Oct. 19.—The Japanese legation gives out the following from Field Marshal Oyama. "The enemy is gradually decreasing in force in the direction of our right army. Only small detachments continue active. The enemy was beaten at Pensiuh and is retreating northwest. Today only occasional exchange of cannonade occurred."

JAPS BURN STORES.
London, Oct. 19.—The Exchange Telegraph's St. Petersburg correspondent says that it is stated that the Japanese are burning large quantities of stores at the Russian front, and have advanced towards Linshupu.

MANSLAUGHTER
IS THE CHARGE REGISTERED AGAINST WALCOTT, THE NEGRO PUG.

Boston, Oct. 19.—A municipal court warrant was granted today for the arrest of Joe Walcott on a charge of manslaughter. Walcott was not able to be taken from the hospital today.

LECTURE TO DELPHIC CLUB.
The Delphic club is being entertained by Mrs. Muscoe Burnett this afternoon at her home on Broadway. It is a pleasant social occasion with a lecture by Rev. D. C. Wright of Grace Episcopal church on "Goethe."

The Free Trade Bird Built Its Nest on Every Chimney.

WHO WILL NOW GET THE BISHOPRIC?

A Special Meeting of Diocesan Council Soon.

Much Speculation Among Episcopals as to Bishop Dudley's Successor.

THOSE WHO ARE MENTIONED

The declination of Rev. Dr. A. S. Lloyd, of New York, who was elected bishop of Kentucky, necessitates another meeting of the diocesan council and an election of bishop. When and where this will be is to be determined as soon as the Kentucky deputies return from Boston. It is expected that the council will be called shortly to meet in Louisville. Yesterday's Louisville Times says:

"Since the refusal of the bishopric of Kentucky by the Rev. Dr. Arthur S. Lloyd, of New York, there has been much speculation and conjecture as to who would be the next choice of the diocesan council. The council will have to be called by the Rev. Dr. James G. Minnigerode for another special meeting."

"After the refusal of the Rev. John G. Gardner, of Baltimore, the two names most prominently mentioned were those of Dr. Lloyd and the Rev. Dr. William F. Manning, of New York. The latter was a very close second in the final vote, and it is natural to suppose now that he will come first in favor."

"Dr. Manning is comparatively a young man for so high an honor, but his rise in his sacred calling has been rapid and he is widely recognized as a man of great ability and force of character. He is a graduate of the University of the South at Sewanee in Tennessee, was rector of a church in Philadelphia, later was in charge of Christ church in Nashville, where his success was notable, and is now at the head of St. Agnes in New York."

"St. Agnes is the chief of the parishes of Trinity and since Dr. Manning has occupied this place he has come to be looked upon as the logical successor of the Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix, rector of Trinity, and after Bishop Potter perhaps the most prominent churchman in this country. In view of this no little doubt has been expressed as to Dr. Manning's probable acceptance of the bishopric of Kentucky should he be chosen to that high office."

"The Rev. Dr. James K. Mason, rector of St. Andrew's in this city, has been prominently mentioned for the place ever since the death of Bishop Dudley, and his great popularity in the council

DENIES ATROCITIES

King of Belgium Sends Representative to Roosevelt to Tell His Side of the Story.

Washington, Oct. 19.—At the request of the king of Belgium Colonel Kowalsky of San Francisco, called upon the president and represented the Belgian government's side of the story of the government of the Congo Free State. He denied recent allegations of atrocities there and quoted a number of men of international reputation who asserted that the Congo Free State is far more advanced in civilization than British East Africa and Uganda. Kowalsky said he called to the president's attention the fact that all the uproar in England over the fearful atrocities in Congo is fanned by missionaries whose applications for big concessions were turned down by Belgian authorities.

After his visit to the White House Kowalsky sent a cablegram to King Leopold assuring him of the president's appreciation of his majesty's thoughtful consideration.

MANY MISHAPS.

CASUALTIES, COLLISIONS AND DERAILMENTS ON RAILROADS.

Washington, Oct. 19.—A report issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission shows that the total number of casualties to persons on railroads in the United States during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, was 55,180, comprising 8,787 killed and 51,343 injured. This shows a large increase. The total number of collisions and derailments was 11,291, involving $9,382,077 of damage to cars, engines and roadway. This is an increase of 648 collisions and derailments.

TWO KILLED

IN A WRECK ON THE CLEVELAND AND PITTSBURG.

Wellsville, Ohio, Oct. 19.—In a rear end collision on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh road this morning near Alliance, Fireman Mesner and Brakeman Lally were killed. Twelve cars were wrecked.

PIRATES ATTACK.

Shanghai, Oct. 19.—The British steamers Pak Kang and Hoi Ho were attacked by pirates in the West river near Canton last night. A British gunboat has been dispatched to the scene.

GOODS WERE DRY AND BURNED WELL

Mississippi Town Destroyed by Fire Yesterday.

Fifteen Stores Were Among the Buildings That Burned to the Ground.

HAD VERY LITTLE INSURANCE

Ackerman, Miss., Oct. 19.—Fire yesterday originated in the dwelling of Mr. Galsorean at Sturgis, Miss., the dwelling being situated in the north end of town, and with a north wind blowing, the flames soon communicated with adjoining buildings, completely destroying every store in town with the exception of one. The Illinois Central depot and cotton platform was in danger of loss until reinforcements were run from Ackerman and Starkville on special trains. The people of Ackerman have offered all relief necessary and at present no outside help will be necessary.

The fire burnt the entire town of Sturgis, leaving only one business house standing. One residence and fifteen stores, with their entire contents, were consumed. Only two men had any insurance—J. E. Sharp and Mr. Kalb had $1,000 insurance each on about $6,000 of stock. Everything was as dry as powder and burnt so rapidly none of the merchants could save their goods. Dave Rainey's store is the only one left standing, and this was due to the fact that it was somewhat isolated from the others.

NO CREDENCE

IN RUMOR THAT 2200 WERE DROWNED OFF COAST OF SPAIN.

London, Oct. 19.—A rumor from Vienna comes that a Cunard liner with twenty-two hundred immigrants aboard was sunk off the coast of Spain in a storm but it is given no credence here. The Cunard line officials have no news of a disaster to any of their vessels.

WILL RECOVER.

BIG REHKOPF PLANT ALMOST A TOTAL LOSS

Blaze in Second Floor of Center Building Spread Rapidly.

Everything Ruined and 100 Men Out of Employment Indefinitely.

THE TOTAL INSURANCE CARRIED WAS $63,050

The harness, saddlery and cutting departments, and the stock and storage rooms of the E. Rehkopf Saddlery company, on Second street between Broadway and Kentucky avenue, were gutted by fire this morning shortly before 1 o'clock. The blaze originated in the second story, middle building, in the cutting room of the harness department, and apparently started near a stairway. The company has three buildings together, and two of them were practically ruined, while the store or sales department, nearest Broadway, was so damaged by water that most of the stock will be a complete loss.

Several persons seemed to discover the blaze about the same time. The alarm was sent in from the Western Union over its private alarm system, and about the same time Officers Cross and Terrell discovered it.

Chief Woods soon had every available facility at work, and the aerial truck was used for the first time, enabling the firemen to do good work from an elevated position.

The blaze spread rapidly to the harness and buggy departments, and water ruined what the fire did not destroy. While the lower floors were not invaded by the fire, the water soaked everything that could not be moved out, and added to the loss.

According to some first on the scene the fire seemed to have started in two or three places. It was reported that the fire-doors between the Second street building and the John G. Rehkopf Buggy house were found broken open, but it was learned that this was done by the firemen after they began fighting the flames.

Officers Cross and Terrell saw two or three men coming out of the alley in the rear of Jones Hardware store, which leads to the rear of Rehkopf's, about fifteen minutes or half an hour before the fire was discovered, but knowing nothing about the approaching fire, and being engaged watching another case, they did not stop the men.

It was thought for a while that the loss might not exceed $25,000, but this estimate will likely fall far short, it is said today.

When the hard-working firemen completed their work at 6 o'clock this morning, they had saved surrounding property from damage, but the three Rehkopf buildings were so badly damaged that should repairs be started on them now, it would be some time until the establishment could be running again.

The floors in the two buildings farthest from Broadway were burned through, and the building nearest Broadway is so badly damaged that it will take quite a while for it to dry out and be repaired.

Much of the stock that was not injured by fire was irreparably damaged by water. It may be of some value yet, but it can never be used for the purpose it was intended.

The hardware in the store department will be rusty in a short time, as it is water-soaked, and the other stock fared equally as badly. That portion of the stock removed to the outside was comparatively small. It was piled into the street near the new market house excavations, and this morning carried into building of John Rehkopf Buggy company, on Broadway, where it will remain until the firm gets straightened out. The firm saved about all its buggies, which were kept in the building nearest Kentucky avenue.

The machinery in the harness department was ruined, but most of that in the saddlery department may be saved.

ried any insurance.

Some of them had tools worth $200 or over, while all of them had $50 worth or more. They had only a few days ago begun negotiations for insurance on their tools, but none of them had taken out any insurance, and consequently lost all they had.

It is impossible to estimate the loss at present, with any degree of accuracy, but a member of the firm today stated that it would probably be $45,000 or possibly $50,000.

It is not known what will be done in regard to re-entering business, as Mr. E. Rehkopf, the head of the firm, has for some time been thinking of moving further south, and also of concentrating all his factories in Mechanicsburg, near his tanyard. It is understood that he has been offered strong inducements to locate in Nashville and elsewhere, and is now in a better position than ever before to accept.

The fire will not affect the collar department, on Kentucky avenue between Third and Fourth, or the tan yard in Mechanicsburg, which are running as usual.

Mr. Rehkopf seems to have been peculiarly unfortunate in Paducah. His firm is one of the oldest here, and this is the third time he has been burned out. In addition, his collar shop has been damaged and burned out entire by fire, and only last July the John G. Rehkopf Buggy company on Broadway near Second, was set afire by someone who broke into the rear end, and the stock destroyed or rendered almost worthless.

It will be some time before the insurance adjusters arrive in Paducah to adjust the loss, but the total amount of insurance carried by Mr. Rehkopf, according to Insurance Commissioner C. C. Rose, was $63,050 on stock, building, fixtures and furniture; $42,750 on stock, $14,100 on building and $7,000 on furniture and fixtures.

It is probable that many days will be necessary to adjust the loss on the stock and buildings, even after the adjusters get here.

The insurance is placed as follows.

KENTUCKY NEWS TOLD IN PARAGRAPHS

AN ANCIENT SUIT.

Owingsville, Ky., Oct. 19.—At the recent term of circuit court here Attorney Reuben Guggell entered a motion to file away the noted old chancery suit of Spencer Boyd's heirs vs. Spencer Boyd's devisees, which suit was filed December 2, 1862, forty-two years ago. The suit was brought to close up the estate of Spencer Boyd, which amounted to a value of over $100,000. The case was tried here six times and appealed to the Kentucky court of appeals six times. Each time the judgment was reversed. Some of the most noted attorneys in the state were connected with the case, among others H. L. Stone, city attorney of Louisville; William Lindsay, formerly United States senator; William H. Holt, formerly of the Kentucky court of appeals, and judge of the Puerto Rican district court. A two bushel sack is filled with the papers connected with the famous old case. Mr. Guggell filed the suit forty-two years ago and entered a motion to file it away.

BOARD OF WORKS
MEETS AGAIN TODAY

Will Discuss the Storm Water Sewer Project.

The Mayor Is Censured For His Action In Stopping Kentucky Avenue Work.

BOUGHT TO HAVE SPOKE BEFORE

The regular meeting of the board of public works will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the city hall, with the usual amount of business on hand, and nothing of great importance to come up.

It is possible the storm water sewerage on Kentucky avenue will come up for further discussion. Many people have expressed their displeasure at the manner in which the mayor prevented the contract being acted on at the council meeting Monday night by springing the question of who should pay for the sewerage.

The consensus of opinion seems to be that the mayor showed very little tact. Here after the city has been operating under the new charter two years or more, the mayor comes in and says he has just looked at the law about these storm water sewers. He has signed several ordinances for building storm water sewers, and all contained the provision that the city pay for it. Yet the mayor never raised any objection until now.

It is generally admitted that the mayor made a great mistake in springing this thing and stopping the very necessary work on Kentucky avenue at this time, when so much haste is necessary in order to get the work finished.

"It seems to me," declared one official, "that the mayor might have discovered this thing in time to pay some of the cost of the storm water sewerage in front of his property. He didn't, however. He let the city pay about $5,000 for one job of sewerage alone, without urging any investigation, and now has the audacity to come in and say that he has looked at the law, and that we property owners should pay for it. Why didn't he look at the law before? What is he paid for? Why did he sign those other storm water sewer ordinances requiring the city to pay for the sewers, if the law requires the property owners to do it? Why didn't he examine the law then, before he signed away the city's money?"

"It certainly looks strange to me, and I am especially disgusted because it has stopped work that ought to be in progress right now. This thing ought to have been settled long ago. Another thing, the ordinances for this storm water sewer now about to be built were passed by both boards twice. These ordinances require the city to pay for it, and the city solicitor drafted the ordinances. He said nothing about the property owners having to pay for the storm water sewers, and the mayor, who was there and heard the ordinances read several times, likewise said nothing about it. Now the mayor stops work by springing this point after the city has paid out several thousand dollars for storm water sewers, including those in front of some of the mayor's property. Such tactics whether from ignorance and official negligence, make me tired."

A number of people have been to members of the board of works, it is reported, and asked them to go ahead and let the contract and ignore this belated mare's nest of the mayor, that may delay work indefinitely. The board gives no intimation of what it will do.

TRIED TO HANG SON

WHEELING IND., MAN CHARGED BY NEIGHBORS WITH IN-HUMAN CRIME.

On complaint of neighbors William S. Leonard, of Wheeling, a village north of Muncie, Ind., has been arrested and charged with assault and battery upon his son. It is charged that Leonard placed a rope about the neck of his son Torrence, 13 years old, and was attempting to hang the boy from a rafter when the screams of the lad attracted neighbors, who rescued him. The accused man denies the charge.

REV. MALLOY RULED OUT OF ORDER

Comment Over a Resolution Introduced at Synod.

The Delegates Discussed It Before the Moderator Made His Ruling.

THE SEMINARY TERM

Shelbyville, Ky., Oct. 19.—Much comment was created at yesterday's session of the Kentucky Synod of the Southern Presbyterian church, during the discussion of the formal acceptance of the invitation extended by the Northern Synod to attend the inauguration of President Hinnett, of the Central University, at Danville, next Thursday. The acceptance was agreed on, but the Rev. Dr. Malloy offered a resolution, stating that if the invitation was accepted it would be regarded by the general assembly of the church as an indication that the Southern branch wished a closer union with the Northern division. The resolution caused much excitement, but Dr. Malloy was ruled out of order by Dr. Lyons, the moderator.

The convention also discussed the report of the committee which was appointed to visit the Louisville Seminary, and which urged that the school term be lengthened from seven to eight months. It is expected that action on this matter will be taken some time during today's session.

An announcement of considerable interest was that Mrs. Sallie Grundy, who died recently at Springfield, had left a bequest of several thousand dollars to the conference for establishing an orphan's home.

After the greater part of the business of the session had been cleared up, a memorial service in honor of the late Rev. G. H. Strickland was held, being led by the Rev. Dr. P. B. Lattimer.

A memorial service for Major McClellan, the former president of Sayre Institute, in Lexington, was also held.

FIRE AT HICKMAN

Considerable Damage There Last Evening.

Two Fine Residences Burned and Others Were Barely Saved.

Hickman, Ky., Oct. 19.—A destructive fire here last night caused a property loss of $10,000. The residences of Rev. Stancill and W. A. Dadds were totally destroyed, with their contents.

The residence of Charles Baltzer was saved after a desperate fight.

Mrs. Stancill and three children narrowly escaped being suffocated by smoke in the destruction of their home.

Had Baltzer's residence burned at least a half dozen other houses would have gone.

All the property is partly covered by insurance.

A BAD
DISORDER

In the fall of 1895 I contracted that fearful disease, Blood Poison. It gained such headway that I was forced to resign my position and seek relief at Hot Springs. After spending all the means I had I went to Memphis. In less than three weeks I was in a hospital, and after nine weeks of suffering I was discharged as cured. In less than a month every bone in my body seemed to be affected and felt as if they would break at the least exertion. Again I was compelled to resign, and I returned to the hospital for a seven weeks stay. When I came out I was advised to try farming. When I first went on the farm I prevailed on the only firm who handled drugs to get me one dozen bottles of S. S. S. At that time both of my hands were broken out with blisters and I was covered with boils and sores. In the meantime my druggist had gotten two dozen bottles of S. S. S. for me and I began its use, and after taking the thirteenth bottle not a sore or boil was visible. R. B. FOWELL, East 9th St., Little Rock, Ark.

Of all human diseases, Contagious Blood Poison is the most hideous and hateful. The victim is tortured with eating ulcers, sores and abscesses, unsightly blotches, eruptions and other symptoms of the miserable disease. S. S. S. has been used successfully for nearly fifty years for Contagious Blood Poison. It contains no mercury, potash or other mineral. Our home treatment book gives all the symptoms of this disease. A LONG TRAIN

It Contained Over 57 Freight Cars.

Blocked the Local Yards For Over an Hour.

The first blockade in the local Illinois Central yards this season, occurred this morning in the shop yards when freight train No. 182, composed of fifty-seven cars, some empty and some loaded, pulled in from the south.

The train was one of the longest ever brought into Paducah in one section, and while the caboose stood at the old dispatching offices, the engine stood near Broadway, and the train had to be cut in several parts at the street crossings to enable wagons to pass. For more than an hour and a half was the main line, from the Broadway crossing to the south yards on the south end track, blocked and the switch engines in the shop yards were hemmed in and unable to move about their work.

The situation was relieved about 8 o'clock when the engine coupled onto the train and pulled it to the incline. The switch engines were then released, the train cut into pieces and sidetracked.

Shelbyville, Ill., Oct. 19.—Alfred and Charles Peterson, orphans but not relatives, were suffocated in a fire which destroyed the interior of the Middlesworth Orphans Home here this morning.

Hundreds of thousands of women suffer with irregular periods. Thousands suffer bearing down pains. Others are nervous and have all manner of pains in the abdomen, back, neck, limbs and head. WINE OF CARDUI CURES ALL THESE TROUBLES. There is hardly a home where some woman is not the victim of female weakness in some form. In your home there is a sufferer. There is another in your neighbor's home. Wine of Cardui will cure you, your sister, your mother or your daughter. It will cure your neighbor.

Over 1,500,000 suffering women have been cured by Wine of Cardui. Hundreds of thousands of well and happy women have their health because some interested friend took them a bottle of Wine of Cardui or told about what this wonderful woman's tonic would do.

Will you not follow Mrs. Smithers' example by giving Wine of Cardui a trial and then tell other sufferers of your cure?

1603 Maple St., LOUISVILLE, KY., June 20, 1904.

I feel it my duty to thank you for the good Wine of Cardui has done for me. I was nervous, worn-out and on the verge of a general break-down. Providence directed one of your little books my way and I bought a bottle of Wine of Cardui. I had taken it but three days when a decided change was perceptible. What it did for me it will do for any other woman, and I never fail to take advantage of an opportunity to recommend it as a reliable and sure cure.

HIGH HONOR

Is Accorded Miss Eugenie Clark, of Paducah.

She Will Read an Original Poem at the World's Fair.

Miss Eugenie Clark, of Paducah, has been selected to read an original poem at the exercises attending the celebration of Renault day at the World's Fair, says the Louisville Post. President David R. Francis has named October 26 as "Renault Day," in honor of Philip Francis Renault, who led the first expedition up the Mississippi river. As the French nobleman pushed his way up toward the headwaters his lieutenants, Le Cleve and La Motte, remained and founded St. Louis.

Miss Clark is one of the Kentucky descendants of Renault, and there are said to be others. All are asked to write to Miss Clark or to I. A. Reneau, of Broken Bow, Neb. The Renault, Reno and Renault families in America are descended from the Mississippi explorer. Renault returned to France, but his descendants returned to America, a number of them to fight with Lafayette in the revolution. There is expected to be a large representation of the line at St. Louis. Addresses will be delivered by President Francis and Governor Dockery, and the Hon. Conrad Reno, of Boston, will respond, after which Miss Clark will read a memorial poem.

IS NO BETTER

MR. W. H. MUSTAINE RETURNS FROM BROTHER'S BEDSIDE.

Mr. W. H. Mustaine, operator in the local Illinois Central passenger depot, has returned from Louisville where he had been attending the bedside of his brother, Mr. E. M. Mustaine, who is very low of consumption of the bowels, and reports him no better. Mrs. Mustaine remained in Louisville. It is said that the patient cannot recover, and Mr. Mustaine's many friends here will regret to learn of his brother's condition.

SHERIFF COMING

HE WILL TAKE PAUL HERBERT SCHMIDT TO SHERMAN, CONN.

The sheriff from Sherman, Conn., is expected this evening after Paul Herbert Schmidt, the young man arrested last week for murder. Detective McCabe will not take the prisoner to Connecticut, but will remain here until his prisoner is taken away.

CURES CHILLS AND FEVER.

"Some of these wishy-washy, innocent, lamb-like people wonder why others have such an 'awfully gruff,' ill-humored disposition," declared a prominent doctor this morning. "To hear them talk the whole world ought to move along in tuneful harmony, with never a cross word or a d—m."

"Maybe these people are sincere in their idea about it, but I'm sure if they are, they ain't doctors. I suppose they think a person who has worked hard day and night, or any other time he was called out, for two score of years, ought to be patient and look pleasant, and incidentally live on prospects."

"Now, you can see me this morning—with eyes half shut, ill-mannered as h—l, and not caring a dam. Why? Because for three nights I have been called out so often that I got scarcely no sleep, and what I did get under the circumstances did me no good. Yet I have to come down and keep scratching for a dollar, sleep or no sleep. Some of us have no vacation or rest for years on a stretch, and yet when we send our bill around, they send word back, 'Oh, I haven't any money this month.'"

"Then you see in the paper maybe the next day where your patients have gone to the world's fair. When you have to think about it, it is enough to ruin the sunny disposition of a seraph. I meet grocers, coal men, and many others every day who, like me, have to stay at home because the people who owe them are going to the world's fair instead of paying their debts."

Then he sent his collector out again on the war path.

Mr. Finis Fields, foreman of the wrecking crew of the Illinois Central, is an unusual predicament. The other afternoon, as he and several other workmen were en route home from work, a frisky figure in new sailor suit scampered up to them, and after dancing about for a few moments was recognized by Mr. Fields as his little eight year old daughter. She had just received the sailor suit from an uncle in the navy, and was so pleased with it that she could not be induced to wear anything else. Now she dresses like a small boy all the time, and nothing will induce her to go back to dresses. The parents do not know what they are to do, unless it is to be patient and wait for the sailor suit to wear out.

Speaking of Senator Jo Blackburn, who will speak here shortly, the Argonaut tells this one:

Senator "Joe" Blackburn's politeness was disastrous to him upon one occasion. He was making a trip to the mountains in the eastern part of Kentucky, and made his stopping place at a farmhouse at a remote point from the city. On the day of his arrival he was rather late for dinner, and the lady of the house apologized for the coffee, which at that time was lukewarm. "Oh, I do not mind it in the least, madam," said Senator Blackburn. "I really prefer my coffee cold, you know." It was served cold during the remainder of his two weeks' stay.

The new fire escape at the High School building bids fair to be "a thing of beauty and a joy forever"—to the small boy, at any rate.

The youngsters take a peculiar delight in it, and while it is not for a moment feared that any of them, in his youthful longing to test the utility of the fascinating contraption, will set fire to the house or give a false alarm of fire in order to get to slide down, it is nevertheless a good thing that the pleasure is to be denied to the youngsters except in case of necessity.

The other day the teachers and pupils were grouped in the yard looking at the huge affair, when a small boy excitedly rushed up and piped: "Oh, professor, if I ain't fairly for five days in succession, may I slide down once?"

The professor wouldn't promise, but the little fellow's question discloses the possibilities of the fire escape as an inducer of prompt and regular attendance among the small boys.

The new police officers have received their helmets, which are fine and imposing looking, and will make warm headpieces for winter weather.

PREPARING FOR THE CLEANING UP

Inspection of the Division Expected Soon.

President Fish Greatly Pleased With the Katterjohn Construction Company's Work.

VISITED THE COMPANY WORKS

Supt. A. H. Egan, of the Louisville division of the I. C., and Roadmaster F. L. Thompson were in the city last night, and at 6 o'clock this morning left on a freight train for Tennessee river bridge and other parts of the division, accompanied by Trainmaster Scheuing.

The officials are looking after the division closely, getting everything cleaned up and in the best possible shape for the annual inspection of the head officials, which is expected to begin today or tomorrow.

President Fish and Vice President Harahan, who were on this division Saturday, returned to Chicago to attend the annual meeting of the road today.

No particular route has been published and it is not known when the party will reach Paducah.

Mr. F. W. Katterjohn returned last night from Chicago where he had been on business, and this morning went to Cedar Bluff to his stone quarries.

During the recent trip of President Fish and Vice President Harahan, the quarries and crushing works at Cedar Bluff were gone over and the officials were pleased with it. The Katterjohn company furnishes a great amount of stone for ballast, and will furnish some for the ballasting of the Cairo extension and for work on other parts of the division where improvements are being made.

Although Mr. Katterjohn has never met Mr. Fish, and he has been associated with the higher officials of the Illinois Central for several years, Mr. Fish has stated he would like to meet the head of the construction company. Mr. Katterjohn completed last year something like a $1,000,000 contract of concrete work over the entire southern lines for the Illinois Central and his work has been satisfactory in every particular.

Mr. J. B. Alvey, of Fulton, who is working a trick in the dispatching offices, is in the city today on a visit to friends. Mr. Alvey comes to Paducah every now and then to meet his railroad friends. He formerly worked here and likes Paducah immensely.

On account of the heavy increasing business on the Paducah district of the Illinois Central, the yard limits at several stations have been extended to enable the receipt of more cars.

At Gravel Switch the yard limits south have been extended 1,000 feet and takes in much more track.

At Princeton the yard limits have been extended south 1,500 feet and it is said the limits in other yards will also be changed as the business increases and makes more yard room necessary.

The Paducah district of the Illinois Central has had assigned for its use all the new 50 ton center dump coal cars of series 100051 and 100076. These cars are of the large type and will be used in hauling coal from the mines located on the district. This is one of the best districts for heavy mining business on the system and on account of the many trains gotten out daily, causes the work of train dispatching hard and calls for the best dispatchers on the system.

NICE GAME

WILL BE PLAYED BETWEEN PADUCAH AND MAYFIELD FOOT-BALL TEAMS.

A foot ball game has been arranged between the High School team of this city and a Mayfield team for Saturday afternoon at the ball park.

Tickets are being printed for the game and the members of the High School team expect a big patronage. The girls in the schools will assist in selling tickets and in this way a large crowd will be secured to attend.

This will be the first game of the season and from every indication interest in this winter sport will be just as keen as during the past two years

THE TRUST STORY DENIED.

The democrats have been "hoist by their own petard." Every time they attempt to score a point against the republicans they get the hot end of it.

Recently a department ruling was made at Washington involving the tobacco companies, and the "tobacco trust" did not like it. A telegram was then sent out from Washington and published broadcast in the democratic papers, claiming that the administration at Washington had ruled against the "tobacco trust" because the tobacco trust "was for Parker and Davis, and had contributed to the democratic campaign fund." This admission that the biggest alleged trust in the country was for Parker and Davis, who were already the alleged candidates of Wall street, was used by republican speakers and orators to counteract the hypocritical democratic utterances against the so-called trusts, and they have made it so hot for the democrats that the national chairman had to be called on to deny the democrats' own story.

A report from Mayfield of the debate between Hon. J. C. Speight, republican nominee for congress in this district, and Congressman Ollie James, says that Mr. James read the following telegram he had sent to Mr. Taggart:
"Louisville, Ky., Oct. 12, 1904.—Hon.
T. Taggart, chairman democratic national committee, New York.—It is charged by my republican opponent for congress on the faith of a newspaper publication that the American Tobacco company or tobacco trust has contributed money to the national democratic committee. Is this true or false? Answer quickly, care Seelbach's Hotel, Louisville, Ky."

Notice Mr. James discreetly neglected to say that the "newspaper publication" was from the democratic press. And he also evasively puts it "contributed to the national democratic committee," instead of the democratic campaign fund. Contributions are not made to the committee, or at least are not intended for the committee, but to the campaign fund.

But Chairman Taggart replied as follows:

"New York, N. Y., Oct. 12, 1904.—Hon.
Ollie M. James, Seelbach's Hotel, Louisville, Ky.—Your telegram received. The charge made by your republican opponent that the American Tobacco company or tobacco trust has contributed money to the democratic committee is absolutely false in every particular."
"T. TAGGART, Chairman."

So whether the tobacco trust is for Parker and Davis, as claimed by the democrats, or has contributed to the "democratic committee" or not, the democrats have had to take water on their own allegation, which shows how true are the claims they have been and are still making in this campaign.

OPPORTUNITY OF THE POPULISTS.

The populists of Kentucky should remember the democrats in their prayers, and not forget them on election day.
The democratic state machine has denied the populists the privilege of having their candidates on the ballots, and did it on a technicality solely because the populists, by having candidates of their own, were endangering the success of democratic candidates. The democratic machine in Kentucky has a way of accomplishing its ends, law or no law, but usually contrives to use a club on the other fellow, and escape the consequences under the forms of law.

The shabby treatment now accorded the populists, in preventing them from casting their votes for the men they have nominated for office, should prompt every populist in Kentucky to vote the republican ticket. This is the only way to break up a machine that constantly overrides justice and the will of the people.

Every vote cast for the republican ticket will be a vote to overthrow the gang that seeks to crush liberty and defect the freedom of the ballot in Kentucky. The populists in the First district will not have an opportunity to vote for Dr. Lackey, their nominee for congress, because the democratic secretary of state refuses to place his name on the ballot, but they can vote for Hon.
J. C. Speight, a fair, intelligent gentleman who would never resort to such methods to get an advantage over a political opponent.

It behooves them to rebuke the methods that deprive them of their rights.

What General Grant said about the democrats being like a man on the rear end of a train—never seeing a thing until he has passed it—seems to be eternally true. The gold standard dawaned on them for the first time at the St.
Louis convention—several years after the Republicans had established it.

Tommy Taggart, after the democratic papers all over the country claimed that the tobacco trust had contributed to the democratic campaign fund, says that it did not. But Thomas also says that Judge Parker is going to carry Indiana and New York—and be elected!

It is a queer commentary on the ideals of the democrats, but a great many of them seem to think that strength always leads to invasion of other people's rights.

Grandpa Davis should not be censured for making such a small campaign contribution. He has a record for dodging worthless investments.

Judge Parker has twice informed us that he believes in the gold standard.
That even matters up, as he voted twice against it.

Judge Parker refuses to take the stump. He will probably not be satisfied with anything short of the tall timber.

Mr. Speight has forced the democrats to swallow one of their own campaign lie.

As usual the democrats grabbed the hot end of the pension order poker.

TO PANAMA

Secretary Taft is Ordered to go
There.Feeling Against the United States
Said to Be Bitter.

Washington, Oct. 19.—President Roosevelt today instructed Secretary of War Taft to make a personal visit to the Isthmus of Panama and confer with the president and other officials of the Panama government regarding the questions arising out of the possession by the United States of the canal zone.

Secretary Taft will probably leave
November 14.

It is claimed that the feeling in Panama against the United States is most bitter, and that open rupture between the countries has been barely averted.

Threats have been made of dynam-iting the capital and resorting to the most violent methods of expressing disapproval of the people to the attitude of the United States.

WHEN EMPEROR WILLIAM UN-VEILED MONUMENT.

Berlin, Oct. 19.—Emperor William unveiled the equestrian bronze statue of Emperor Frederick in front of the new Museum of Art yesterday in the presence of a brilliant company of princely personages, the Imperial Chancellor, Count Von Buelow, the cabinet, diplomatic corps, delegates from foreign international societies, generals and admirals, all of whom stood in a drizzling rain until the imperial party arrived, and during the ceremonies. The Emperor, the Crown Prince Frederick William and his betrothed, the Duchess Cecilia, of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, little Princess Victoria and Prince Henry of Prussia, were in the royal group. The emperor, the members of the royal family and the other more distinguished personages, after the unveiling, withdrew to the Marble Hall within which His Majesty dedicated the building to art.

"This statue created by the artistic hands of genius," said the emperor, alluding to Prof. Rudolf Maier, the sculptor, "will transmit to later generations of the illustrious figure of the illustrious dead. The rich collections in the Museum will testify to the activity of the noble ruler whose sublime, luminous figure will continue to live in the hearts of the Germans."

IN REGISTRATIONThe Democrats Picked up Some Yesterday.The Republicans Have 105 More Than Last Year—The Democrats Lose 163.

THE TOTAL LESS THAN IN 1903

The supplementary registration yesterday brought the total up to 4,087 votes, 79 votes less than the total registration last year.

The number of votes now registered in Paducah is 2,147 democrats; 1,773 republicans, and 167 independents. This gives the democrats 374 more registered votes than the republicans.

Last year after the second day's registration the democrats had 2,310 votes registered against 1,668 republicans, and 188 miscellaneous, a plurality of 642.
Last year's registration was 1,141 votes more than the total of the preceding year, and the republicans this year have registered 105 more votes than they had last year, while the democrats have registered 163 less this year than they had last year. Two years ago the republicans in Paducah registered 962 votes, having in two years gained in the registration 811 votes.

The second day's registration this year brought out 337 democrats, 176 republicans and 28 miscellaneous. Last year it brought out 333 democrats, 396 republicans, and 67 miscellaneous.

The registration shows conclusively that Paducah is rapidly becoming republican. The city republican committee has a list now of 175 republicans who are registered democrats, and scores of democrats admit that they are now going to vote the republican ticket.

The registration is most encouraging to republicans, and evidently very discouraging to democrats.

Social Notes and About People.

ENTHUSIASM WAS GREAT.

At a called meeting of the Louisville Daughters of the Confederacy, reports were made of the St. Louis and Paducah conventions.
The Courier-Journal says:
"Mrs. Sallie Marshall Hardy gave the report of the Paducah convention and among other things said that she had never seen such enthusiasm at any convention as that manifested when Mrs. Bissil Duke was elected president of the Kentucky U. D. C.'s. She paid a glowing tribute to Mrs. Duke's popularity among the daughters."
—The survey of the Potter farm to be purchased by the city for a cemetery has been completed by County Surveyor Wrenn, and it is expected that in a few days the other formalities necessary before the city gets possession will be completed.

UNIQUE SOCIAL.

A carpet-rag social was held at Mrs. Watson's residence, 927 South Twelfth street, yesterday afternoon. Among the guests were: Mrs. Charles Pryor, Mrs. Fortwood, Mrs. Louis Siegel, Mrs. Chas. Akers, Mrs. Oscar Wallace and Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Mason. Making rag carpets is something of a fad now, but this is the first rag-carpet social to be held here. It is quite a pleasant feature of country social life, though.

SANS SOUCI CLUB

The Sans Souci club is being entertained by Miss Ethel Morrow at her home on Broadway this afternoon.

Mr. L. A. M. Greif has returned from the world's fair.
Mrs. Richard Calissi left yesterday for a ten days' stay at the fair.
Dr. W. C. Eubanks and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Buckley, of Ohio, left today for the fair.

Judge Reed held court today in the circuit court room, the first time this term, as it has heretofore been too cold and he had to convene court in the county judge's room.

SAVED HIS LIFE.

J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump in my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief; two fifty-cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity." 25c, 50c, $1.00. THE GRAND LODGE TO ELECT OFFICERS

The New Grand Master Will be R. M. C. Rhea.

The Grand Chapter Last Night Elected Officers, Developing a Hot Race.

NAMES OF THE OFFICERS

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 19.—The most important business to come before the grand lodge today will be the election of officers.

Owen D. Thomas, grand master, will retire. He will be succeeded by R. M. C. Rhea, of Morgantown, now deputy grand master.

James Garnett, Jr., of Columbia, will be elected to the chair of deputy grand master. He has just finished serving a term of grand senior warden.

Samuel K. Veech, will be advanced from grand junior warden to grand senior warden. These officers are regularly advanced one degree at each election.

Much interest is being shown in the election of the junior warden who will be in direct line to succeed to the chair of grand master. Those who are prominently mentioned are: J. W. Muir, of Hodgenville, H. P. Barrett, of Henderson, W. C. Black, of Harboursville, Virgil Smith, of Somerset, and Robert W. Bingham, of Louisville.

The Grand Chapter met last night and the following officers were re-elected:

Joseph H. Ervatt, of Paris, grand high priest.

Albert A. Hazelbrigg, of Mt. Sterling, deputy grand high priest.

H. H. Holman, of Madisonville, grand king.

George A. Lewis, of Frankfort, grand scribe.

All the officers, with the exception of grand scribe, were elected by regular advancement. This race developed an exciting election between George A. Lewis and G. Allison Holland, of Eminence. Lewis finally won by a majority of two votes, of the 264 cast.

HELEN KELLER DAY

UNUSUAL HONORS PAID THE BRILLIANT ALABAMA WOMAN.

St. Louis, Oct. 19.—"Helen Keller Day," named in honor of Miss Helen Keller, of Tusculum, Ala., who, born deaf, dumb and blind, has acquired national fame through her educational success, and the only person in whose honor the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company, has designed a special day, was celebrated at the World's Fair grounds yesterday with exercises participated in by prominent educators of the deaf, dumb and blind from all parts of the United States.

Prof. E. N. Gallaudet, of Washington, D. C., presided, and introduced Miss Keller, whose address proved the feature of the exercises. In addition to her other accomplishments, Miss Keller has learned to speak in a well modulated voice with unusually plain articulation, and her remarks aroused considerable enthusiasm.

Addresses were made by Dr. Alex. Graham Bell, of Washington, D. C., and Warring Wilkinson, of Berkeley, Cal.

NEWS OF THE RIVERS.

The new steamers Kentucky, Bowling Green and Nugent will be inspected at Jeffersonville this week.

Only a few of the very lightest draught boats are running anywhere in the Ohio. Being low and falling it drains the water from the tributaries, causing them to be low and navigation on them to be almost entirely suspended. Many of the bars on the Ohio are dry and the channels near them are shallow, crooked and very changing.

The J. B. Richardson is laid up at Evansville and the Reuben Dunbar is taking a rest at New Albany.

Farmers living on the banks of the Ohio and its tributaries are hauling water for miles from the rivers for their stock to drink.

The only boats running between Louisville and Paducah are the Conveyer and Bellevue, running between the mouth of Salt river, West Point and Stephensport.

The Pittsburg Leader says: "The Monongahela river that, although the entire stream is slackwatered from Pittsburg to Fairmont, W. Va., which should insure continuous navigation it may yet be necessary to suspend navigation. Such a condition has not been faced by Monongahela rivermen for many years."

The wreck of the Mayflower has been recovered. The hull was not injured.

The gauge today is four-tenths and standing, with clear, cool weather and no prospect of a rise.

There was no boat to Cairo today. Tomorrow the Charleston will go out in the trade.

The City of Charleston left last evening for Elizabethtown, Ill., and was reported today to have been unable to get past at Smithland, and on her way back.

The Clyde has laid up at Perryville, Tenn., and the Lulu Warren leaves in her place tonight.

The Henry Harley leaves in place of the Tennessee in Tennessee river Saturday night. The Tennessee is expected out tonight.

There is a small rise reported above here, but it is not enough to last one day.

HORSE STOLEN

Fine Animal Belonging to Mr. Pat. Lally Missing.

It Is Believed That There is a Gang of Thieves Operating Here.

The police have a suspicion that there is a gang of horse thieves operating in this vicinity. In addition to several having been stolen in adjacent counties within the past few weeks, several have been stolen, or are missing, in Paducah. Two that were yesterday missed from Goebel avenue, belonging to J. H. Roberts, of Fancy Farm, have not yet been recovered. They were taken from the home of Thomas Eldon, and were undoubtedly stolen.

Mr. Pat Lally, the well-known Trimble street grocer, last night reported the theft of a fine horse. It was taken from his stable, and no trace has been discovered of it. Some boys saw it last early yesterday morning, when they took another horse from the stable to go hunting. When they returned the horse that was there when they left had been removed, although the doors were fastened.

Chief of Police Collins has his men doing all possible to discover where the horses are going.

PRESBYTERIAN UNIVERSITY CANNOT BE MOVED FROM CLARKSVILLE.

Clarksville, Tenn., Oct. 19.—In the Chancery court here this morning Judge Stout granted a perpetual injunction in the case of the Southwestern Presbyterian University vs. the Synod of Tennessee et al. This suit was brought to prevent further efforts on the part of the Presbyterians of Georgia to remove the university from Clarksville to Atlanta, there to form a part of a great southern educational institution. Complainants prayed for an injunction to prevent further efforts along this line, which was granted as above. The case goes to the supreme court.

MEXICAN SOLDIERS FIGHT DESPERADOES

Bloody Fray in Which One Was Killed.

The Bandits Had Shot Down a Planter And His Servants.

ALL SOLDIERS WOUNDED

Mexico City, Oct. 19.—Three desperadoes, Nestor Flores, Rodrigo Salado and Pedro Herrera, after drinking heavily, were responsible for one of the bloodiest tragedies that has occurred in the federal district in fifteen years.

About 8 o'clock in the morning they went to the residence of Viento Godinez, at Santa Julia, a northern suburb of this city. They called for Godinez, and when he issued from the house with a servant named Laurino Frias, the bandits shot both men. Frias died instantly and Godinez was badly wounded.

When the news of the tragedy reached the police they dispatched twelve rurales in the direction of Morale's plantation, whither the murderers had fled, and two to bridge lying between Santa Julia and a plantation.

The rurales upon reaching the bridge were surprised by the bandits, who killed one and wounded the other. The bandits escaped across the bridge.

They then passed through the Morale's plantation, forcing the occupant to furnish them more liquor.

While trying to escape through a wide magnify plantation the main body of the rurales overtook them. Hiding behind magnies the men had a battle with the rurales, over 100 shots being exchanged. Flores was finally killed and Salado captured, after receiving several bullet wounds and saber cuts. Herrera, though wounded, succeeded in escaping, and a posse was sent after him in the western hills.

Leonardo Enriquez, a private citizen, who accompanied the rurales, was shot eight times, and is reported to be dying. Nearly every soldier in the squadron was wounded.

The dead and wounded were brought to Toluca, a town near this city.

Salado, the captured bandit, is a desperate criminal, and is charged with three murders.

BLOCK SIGNALS

May be Required on All Railroads.

Interstate Commerce Commission Interested in the Move.

Washington, Oct. 19.—It was stated today that the Interstate Commerce Commission will renew its efforts at the forthcoming session of congress to have a law enacted looking to the operation of railroad trains on a system of signals insuring greater safety to the public. The commission will urge that all railroads be compelled to operate their trains on the block signal system. At the last session of congress a bill with this end in view was drawn up, but for some reason it was not introduced. Probably the same bill, with a few changes, will be presented at the next congress.

Many of the railroads now use the block signal system and others are installing it. Of the roads entering Memphis the Illinois Central is installing the block system, having started the improvement on its southern lines some time ago. Under this system it has been demonstrated that a collision is impossible, the signals being so constructed that in the event of their getting out of order the danger warning is thrown and is not replaced until the derangement is repaired.

FORMER CROWN PRINCESS OF SAXONY REFUSED PERMISSION TO RETURN.

Berlin, Oct. 19.—A minor news agency says the former crown princess of Saxony telegraphed to the new King Frederick of Saxony, from whom she was divorced after her flight with a French tutor named Goron, asking permission to attend the funeral of King George and see her children. The king, it is added, caused a refusal to be telegraphed her.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

A Pleasant, Simple, But Safe and Effective Cure For It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing a pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, feeble appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a shiny, inflamed condition. The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanston, the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastase, Ascorbic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. R. S. Workman, Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge there from passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, this producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, Catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

Mr. Slocum will go to California via New Orleans and his route will carry him either through Paducah or Cairo and local union blacksmiths are expecting a telegram with information as to the route he will take.

If he comes through Paducah, a special meeting of the local union will be held, and he will be entertained with a smoker and spread. This is quite an event, if the officer does come, and the union men want to give him a complete reception.

Hearts Courageous

By... HALLIE ERMINIE RIVES

Copyright, 1902, by THE DOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

A struggle showed in the baron's face. No one had ever gone uncheered from his door. He kept open table at the Winchester courts, fed the poorer settlers with his own produce and would have filled the ragged hat of a beggar with guineas. One passionate hatred he had—hatred against the enemies of his king. All were alike to him, high or low. The times, growing beyond him, had put forward patriots. But, all alike, he deemed them vipers that bit the hand that fed them.

As Henry approached the door my lord was fidgeting in his chair. The hand was upon the latch when he could restrain himself no longer.

"Joe," he thundered, "fetch a stirrup cup! You may be a rebel, sir, but blast my whips and spurs, you shall drink before you go! I could wish you were not an enemy of the king."

"Not of the king," said Henry, and smiled. "Not of the king, but of the king's rule."

A gleam of fierceness, of the uncompromising principle of his life, shot from under the old man's brows. "I hold with no disloyalty."

"I hold," said Henry in a low voice, "with my friend Colonel Washington."

"I abet no treasons," flamed the old man.

Henry's eyes had a sudden gleam of satiric humor. He stretched out the glass the negro had brought him and proffered it to his host.

"I must decline," he said, "to accept hospitality from any man on earth who has sought to say against the character of Colonel Washington."

The baron stood for a moment with his jaw dropped, then coughed. "God knows," he said, his voice shaking like a child's—"God knows I!"

But he got no further. "My dear Lord Fairfax," exclaimed Henry, and drank the glass at a draft.

CHAPTER IX.

In the gray wreathed dawn Lord Dunmore, at the head of his Virginia troops, marched off with life and drum for Fort Pitt, and the buff and scarlet passed the King's Arms, where Anne peered from the window to see them off. In one of the scarlet groups she distinguished Francis Byrd. Drawing the curtains close under her chin, she put out a hand and waved to him, smiling, and he saluted her face with a flash of his sword and a wistful look as he rode by. Immediately behind the governor, near Farrar, rode Foy, and a sting of resentment made her clench her hands with the steel in her eyes.

When they had gone she crept back into the warm bed and lay snuggly thinking. She should see Armand soon again, and he should never know what she had done. So thinking, she dropped to sleep and did not wake till the sun was high.

She breakfasted with gay spirits, insisted on riding horseback and, followed by John the Baptist, galloped off the half hour in advance of her aunt's chariot along the way to Greenway Court.

She entered. No one was in the hall, and her feet fell noiselessly in the thick buffalo robe on the floor.

She pushed open the door of the living room and then stopped, startled.

She saw a settle strewn with skins, a wave of curling brown hair pillowed on it, and under this a glimpse of a pale face turned away. There was a shaded window opposite, and light came through it whitely. A hand and wrist hung over to the floor. There was something desolate in the silence, something appealing in the droop of that hand that brought a smart to Anne's eyes as she looked.

Suddenly she caught her breath and took quick steps forward into the room, gazing searchingly at the figure on the couch—the strong hair, setting all the paleness of the face in a shadowy frame; the blue circles under the closed lids, the young mouth, the upward sweep of the rounded chin. She began to tremble exceedingly, her lips unsteady, her great blue eyes misting, her whole face caught in a quaking terror. She had gone whiter than a moon flower.

"They were too late!" she whispered. "You fought, then? Ah, while I was so glad!"

She crouched down by the settle, her hand pressed tight against her heart, full of a joyful anguish she had never known. Something she had fought down hitherto rose in her throat and choked her at sight of this hurt, this helplessness.

At last, yielding all at once, with a little sob and a gesture of pride and longing and surrender, she bent slowly, like a swaying lily, and kissed him on the forehead.

He stirred and opened his eyes with wonder in them to see her face so near. "Mademoiselle!"

"You have been wounded!" she breathed.

He tried to rise and, failing, smiled at her. "It is a little thing. The doctor has told me that. And you care! Then it is nothing—less than nothing."

"You make light of it."

He lifted himself on one elbow and stretched out an uncertain hand toward her. "Mademoiselle," he said, "was I dreaming when you came or did—or did!"

She bent slowly, like a swaying lily.

She was on her feet now, and her eyes turned their gaze away.

"No, no," she answered; "you were asleep."

"As I opened my eyes just now it seemed—as if you had—kissed me on the forehead. Was that a dream, mademoiselle?"

"It was a dream," she said hurriedly, her voice wavering.

"You kissed me?" Joy was in his look.

"No."

"Ah, mademoiselle!" He fell back on the skins.

With suddenly rosy cheeks she ran toward the door to meet the old baron entering from the hall.

There was at last a long November week while Anne was at Winchester and when she and Armand, his wound healed, rode together along the valley roads. The young Frenchman still remained a guest, for the baron would hear no word of departure. He swore he should not leave him till the season opened again at Williamsburg.

The day before their return to Gladen Hall the ladies spent at Greenway Court. As the mild November afternoon faded Armand and Anne sat in the rustic house, built of twisted grapevine, set where the round spur on which the lodge was built fell steeply down. A book lay on her knee.

Far away against the long sashes of sapphire light the sweep of ragged Blue Ridge stood listlessly. The river bottom was a violet gray reach of stain soaked grasses, hung with wreaths of trailing Virginia creeper, dabbled in the summer's blood, or as if the peaks ran down with red wine wasting.

Anne pointed with a sheet of spun silver, edged with soaked velvet.

"The Indians call it Shenando," she said. "Daughter of the Stars."

He leaned forward and lifted the little book, its binding of parchment, pale yellow, like antique ivory. "It is a tale of my own land," he said softly. "Of Normandy, in the old days when the troubadours sang."

"I have not yet read it," she answered. "Tell me the story."

"It is of the son of a poor woodcutter. Telling once by his hut in the forest, he saw by chance the daughter of a king as she rode past with her cavalier. He brought her a cup of water, and she smiled on him. So fair she was that he loved her to desperation and could not rest nor sleep from thinking of her face. He traveled far and came by night beneath her window and sang songs to her, songs delicate and beautiful, in phrases that only his great love had taught him, and when he sang he touched the strings of his own heart. The lady listened, and her tears fell down from the window in the palace wall. She was a great lady and he the lowest of the land, and in the hopelessness of his passion he sang that he was a prince of a hostile country, wooing in attire of rags the darling to whose presence he might not rightly come. His were not like the songs of the gilded courtiers that flocked her father's gate. They were more noble and true, and his love climbed upon them as if on stairs of gold and drew her heart out to him over the sill. One night she slipped out to his arms in the darkness. Then he knelt on the yellow forest leaves and told her the truth and pleaded as excuse his great love. And he would have gone from her and left her to go back alone."

"What then?" demanded Anne.

"She took his hand and kissed him and went away with him to his hut in the forest."

Both were silent a moment.

The vivid tints in the sky were paling. The river's silver dulled to mauve. The gloom, all luminous, seemed an impatient suitor stealing amorous upon the drowsy day. The day stirred, glowed again and spread out a tawny flood as a woman drops her hair under some golden lamp to please a lover's whim.

"Think you," he asked then very low, "that such a love might be?"

Danger!

Headache, Trembling Hands, Twitchings, Irritability, Are Signals.

Not every headache is a sign of nervous breakdown.

But, if you suffer often from headache that seems to re-occur at intervals, nervous or brain trouble is very evident.

Again, if you can't hold a pen to paper without trembling or twitching, there's a screw loose somewhere.

Or, if you seem irritable and cross without cause.

All these are signs and symptoms. Not necessarily that you are dangerously sick—but, at any rate, sick enough to need Dr. Miles' Nerve.

The danger lies in neglecting the slight symptoms.

Some of these signs are Sleeplessness, Dizziness, Excitability, Loss of Memory, Preeness, Headache, Melancholy, Neuralgia, Muscular Twitchings.

Do not neglect them. Begin to take Dr. Miles' Nerve. It will cure them.

For five years I have suffered terribly from nervous prostration. I tried one physician after another, but received no benefit. I continued to grow worse until I was afraid to be left alone, and despaired of ever being cured.

Three months ago I was induced to try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve. After taking the first bottle I felt so much better that I was again encouraged. I continued to take it until I had taken three bottles, and am now in better health than I have been for years.

MISS MOORE IS TRANSFERRED

Miss Carrie Blythe, of Nashville, who has been attending Vanderbilt University and also teaching in a Nashville school, is in the city and will be given a position as teacher in the 7th and 8th grades in the High school building to succeed Miss Moore, of Lexington, who will be transferred to the Langstaff school in Mechanicsburg.

Miss Moore is a regular teacher, and the extra grade in Mechanicsburg has been taught by Miss Audrey Taylor a substitute. The need of a substitute has been felt and Miss Taylor being regularly installed in the Mechanicsburg school, caused a shortage.

The board gave Supt. Leib power to act in the matter of securing a regular teacher and making the transfer, but the committee was called together today to ratify the matter, and make it perfectly legal.

Miss Blythe comes highly recommended and will no doubt make a valuable addition to the schools. The change will be made tomorrow morning.

DEATH BY AN AUTO.

RECKLESSLY DRIVEN, IT DASHES OVER AN ABUTMENT ONTO ROCKS BELOW.

Springfield, O., Oct. 19.—An auto mobile ran at reckless speed in the darkness plunged over an abutment going up for a new bridge over Mad river, seven miles northeast. The huge machine turned upside down and was smashed and flattened on the rocks below. The chest of Vernon Middleton, brother of Judge E. C. Middleton, was crushed and he was killed outright. Mrs. Bessie Wilkins' left arm was broken and she is badly bruised. Mrs. Virginia Hundley has internal injuries and may die. Charles R. Murphy, son of Postmaster Murphy, was the fourth of the party. He escaped with slight injuries. The entire party was from Urbana and had been out for an all night ride.

Use Shoffner's Sure Cure

The Great Tonic and Blood Purifier—Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

It is a trite and true saying that the "blood is the life." Now where does the blood come from? Everybody knows, or should know, that it comes from the nutritive elements extracted by the stomach from the food we eat. If the digestive organs do not perform their functions by reason of disease germs, there is no nutrition extracted, and the food might better be thrown in the dump to decay and breed germs in the open air than to remain in the stomach and become a rotten, putrid mass, as it naturally does if there is no digestion. No disease germ can live and find lodgment in a human body that uses the Shoffner's Sure Cure. Price $1.00.

What People Say of the Shoffner's Sure Cure.
